Designed with a minimalist Scandinavian aesthetic, this cool and chic retreat sleeps 10, and boasts an indoor hot tub, outdoor sauna, cinema room, TV snug, and wine cave.

DESCRIPTION

REDEFINING THE LUXURY CHALET EXPERIENCE

Step inside and be captivated by the chalet's stylish Scandinavian design. Crisp lines, a neutral colour palette, and natural materials create an atmosphere of pure serenity. The thoughtfully finished interiors are not only aesthetically pleasing but also provide the ideal setting for relaxation and rejuvenation after an exhilarating day on the slopes or exploring Megève's charming village.

The living floor is up the first flight of stairs; a stunning open-plan space where high ceilings and huge windows create a spacious and airy feel and sunlight spills in. In the distance the Mont Blanc towers over the neighbouring peaks, and you can soak up the views from the sunny wrap-around balconies and large terraces.

The sleek kitchen is fully equipped and borders a sunken seating area surrounding the fire place. The stylish dining table has 10 wishbone chairs and two extra stools to seat up to 12. Adjacent to this is a further seating area where you can unwind and take in the panorama from the comfortable sofa.

The mezzanine level on the first floor above the living room houses a cosy TV nook with its own fireplace, inviting you to catch up on your favorite shows, immerse yourself in a good book or to entertain the kids.

Immerse yourself in the luxurious amenities of Chalet Villard Sud that promise to elevate this Alpine haven. On the ground floor, discover the home cinema with a huge screen, where you can gather with loved ones for a cosy film night. Indulge in moments of pure relaxation in spa, where the indoor hot tub sits in front of a window offering serene views while you soak.

Watch the sun dip below the mountains while sitting around the outdoor firepit with your loved ones, sharing stories and toasting marshmallows over the flames while the sky darkens.

Take the path through the garden to the separate mazot where you'll find the traditional sauna—a sanctuary of rejuvenation surrounded by trees and with its own peaceful terrace where you can cool off and enjoy the fresh air. Finally, there is the wine cave, boasting a carefully curated selection of delicious wines available to accompany your dinners.

Throughout Chalet Villard Sud, you can't miss the awe-inspiring views of the Mont Blanc massif, providing a constant reminder of the natural Alpine beauty that surrounds you.

The chalet comfortably accommodates up to 10 guests across its five tranquil and beautifully appointed bedrooms. Four of these are fixed double bedrooms, each with their own stylish en-suite bath or shower room. Decorated tastefully with a scandinavian twist, these four rooms are spread out across the upper ground & first floors.

Additionally, a spacious bunk room on the ground floor offers full-size bunk beds to accommodate two guests. The chalet's overall design ensures everyone has their space to relax.

Chalet Villard Sud is the ideal base for those seeking to explore the enchanting town of Megève and the surrounding slopes. With its spacious, elegant and contemporary design, it's the perfect place to unwind after a day of adventure - with the resort's charming streets, boutique shops, gourmet restaurants and a wealth of winter activities just a stone's throw away.

A red cable car, heavily laden with snow, is the central focus on the left side of the image. It features the 'megève' logo and a crest with a goat. The background is a vast, snowy mountain landscape under a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds. The sun is low in the sky, creating a warm, golden glow over the scene. Snow-covered evergreen trees and a path lead into the distance. The overall atmosphere is serene and wintry.
