OPULENT STAND-ALONE CHALET WITH A SPA, INDOOR SWIMMING POOL, SAUNA,
HAMMAM, DEDICATED CINEMA ROOM, AND REFINED WINE BAR.

Nestled in seclusion, Chalet Vicuña is a standalone gem, located just a short drive from the nearest slopes, town centre, and main lift station, providing an unmatched sense of exclusivity. This luxurious abode, with its six bedrooms and bathrooms, extends a captivating invitation to discover Verbier in a class entirely of its own.

CHALET VICUÑA STANDS AS A STUNNING STAND-ALONE ALPINE HOME, BOASTING BEAUTIFUL SPA FACILITIES AND CAPTIVATING MOUNTAIN VIEWS.

Upon crossing the threshold, the living area impresses with beautiful sofas and velvet seating surrounding the double glass-sided fireplace, framing panoramic views of the majestic mountains. An avant-garde abstract chandelier enhances the sociable space, and the open-plan kitchen, with a large island seating eight, complements the chic design. Three-toned oak flooring and walls along with floor-to-ceiling windows, and captivating art pieces create a truly breathtaking ambience.

The living room seamlessly transitions into the dining area, where the impressive heavy oak dining table looks out onto the mountains, creating an inviting atmosphere for special moments. The kitchen is ingeniously divided into two parts. One segment is a bustling hub for culinary creations; this section can be closed off, providing a space where private chefs can whip up a storm in style. The other part offers a sociable setting for early evening drinks or relaxed breakfasts around the kitchen island.

Each of the six bedrooms in Chalet Vicuña boasts a unique design, adorned with en-suite bathrooms featuring exquisite white marble tiling and sophisticated copper finishes.

On the top floor, the master bedroom unfolds as a spacious retreat with its open-plan layout, boasting a warm linear gas fireplace. The expansive en-suite bathroom is a luxurious haven, featuring a distinctive square bathtub crafted entirely from marble, a rejuvenating hammam shower, and his-and-hers sinks. This floor is thoughtfully completed with a second double bedroom, providing its own en-suite bathroom.

The ground floor welcomes you with three generously appointed double bedrooms and one twin room, each offering terrace access and featuring exquisite en-suite shower rooms. This floor also houses the entrance from the garage, a well-equipped ski and boot room, and a dedicated laundry room.

The lower ground floor transforms into a haven of leisure and indulgence, revealing a state-of-the-art fully equipped gym boasting cutting-edge fitness technology. The cinema, adorned with white wrap-around sofas, sets an intimate stage for movie nights. Adjacent is a dedicated bar, enticing you to settle down and indulge in a bottle from your favourite vintage. Both the cinema and wine havens showcase stunning carved wood ceilings and cupboards, adding an extra layer of craftsmanship to this home.

The spa on this floor stands as the pinnacle of indulgence, featuring an indoor pool with an integrated hot tub, a rejuvenating plunge pool, a serene sauna, and a hammam. A skylight in the ceiling bathes the entire room in natural light, creating a truly relaxing atmosphere. Enhancing the allure, this floor also features a serene treatment room for in-house massages and treatments, ensuring a holistic experience.

Revel in the distinctive blend of luxury, comfort, and forward-thinking design that characterises every inch of Chalet Vicuña, inviting you to experience a new dimension of mountain living.
